Scott Russell	Good luck to the junior boys' basketball team as they travel to Blessed Trinity this afternoon to face off against their Niagara Region rival for the Double A Zone Championship. Let's go junior Reds!
Cef Roy	Congratulations goes out to the Denis Morris Girls Curling Team for the big win in the NCAA finals against St. Paul. The girls started the game going up 5-0 after the first 2 ends. St. Paul was able to tie the game after 5 ends. The girls were up 7-6 with one end to play and ending up stealing 3 points in the final end to win the game 10 - 6. Good luck to the team who plays at SOSSA on Feb 27th in Niagara Falls.
Scott Russell	Hey Reds! Your Vote Counts! As Canadians you are entitled to vote - it is your civic duty! As your current Premier of Ontario, Doug Ford and the Progressive Conservative Party's major platform goal includes working to protect Ontario from U.S. tariffs. The party also believes that money needs to be spent on infrastructure like roads and highways to keep Ontario moving. Innovation is also so important to keep Ontario current. People need jobs and the PC party has committed to investing in the future. Remember to cast your vote on Tuesday February 25th here in the Denis Morris cafeteria during periods 1 and 2.
Jay Naphin	Attention BASEBALL PLAYERS: spring is almost here! Please sign-up for the 2025 Varsity Reds baseball team on the tryout sheet outside room 118, Mr. Naphin's room. Tryouts will begin for pitchers and catchers in the gym or outside immediately following March Break.
