

Name:	Announcement:
Angela Bitondo	Art Club members who are able to stay after school this Friday to finish the Grape & Wine parade float are asked to meet Ms. Bitondo in room 139 after school. We will be adding final touches to the parade float and should be finished no later than 3:30pm. See you after school Friday for our legendary Grape & Wine float-decorating extravaganza!
Erin Clark	Congratulations to the Ladies selected for the Denis Morris Women's Flag Football Team. We will begin our first ever regular season with practice Monday afternoon right after school. Please come prepared with cleats to work on routes and defensive systems. Our first game is here on our DM field on Tuesday Oct. 1st. at 2pm. Come out and support your newest team. Please see Mrs. Clark with any questions or concerns.
Anthony Corrizato	Any Indigenous-identifying youth interested in attending Npaamb's Opportunity Knocks conference. The goal of the conference is to provide youth with exposure to the opportunities and possibilities for career pathways after graduation. The focus will be on trades and apprenticeship including post-secondary education, scholarships and bursaries, and volunteerism. Interested students can come to Student Services for more information.
Anthony Corrizato	Honour Roll Verification Sheets are located on the door of student services. Students who achieved an average of 80% or higher last academic year will appear on the honour roll. Students are asked to check that their name appears on the list if they believe they achieved the requirement and that their name is spelled correctly The list will be removed

	on Monday, September 30
L. Marchese	A reminder that on Monday September 30th is Orange Shirt Day. We encourage staff and students to wear an Orange shirt, and uniform bottoms, to raise awareness about the intergenerational impact and trauma of residential schools have had on Indigenous communities.
McLaren	Teachers please put your recycling bin outside your classroom door and Mr. McLaren's class will come by to empty it and replace your bag.
Erin Clark	Would the girls flag football team please see Mrs. Clark in room 206 immediately after announcements
